One thousand origami cranes is a group of one thousand origami paper cranes held together by strings. An ancient Japanese legend promises that anyone who folds a thousand origami cranes will be granted a wish by the gods. Some stories believe you are granted happiness and eternal good luck, instead of just one wish, such as long life or recovery from illness or injury. This makes them popular gifts for special friends and family. The crane in Japan is one of the mystical or holy creatures and is

The 1001 crane display is one such cultural phenomenon in the Japanese American community. In preparation of a friend's or relative's wedding, members of the wedding party may get together to fold gold cranes for a special wall display. (Usually the cranes are formed to create the kanji, or Chinese character, for love or happiness. Sometimes they are arranged into the family crest.)
