Abstract. This chapter deals about a party that may invoke the impossibility of performing a treaty as a ground for terminating or withdrawing from it if the impossibility results from the permanent disappearance or destruction of an object indispensable for the execution of the treaty. If the impossibility is temporary, it may be invoked only as a ground for suspending the operation of the treaty.

SUPERVENING IMPOSSIBILITY OF PERFORMANCE

Supervening impossibility of performance refers to the situation where performance was possible at the conclusion of the contract but subsequently becomes objectively and permanently impossible through no fault of the parties. The impossibility must be beyond the control of the parties and must be caused by vis major or casus fortuitus.
