Duplex by Kathryn Davis - Goodreads
Reading Kathryn Davis' Duplex was a lot like walking into the middle of someone else's really bizarre dream. It's interesting and dizzyingly creative and Davis' storytelling ability was pretty magical and psychedelic throughout. It's less a novel and more a collection of interconnected short stories that take place at different times, but they feature the same characters—a powerful and ...

Book Review: 'Duplex,' By Kathryn Davis : NPR

In Duplex, Kathryn Davis, whom the Chicago Tribune has called "one of the most inventive novelists at work today," has created a coming-of-age story like no other. Once you enter the duplex that magical hinge between past and future, human and robot, space and time there's no telling where you might come out.
