Real Christmas miracles only ever happen in the movies - don't they? When Jessica was fifteen, she shared the perfect kiss with a mystery boy at a Christmas party. It might have only lasted a moment, and the boy might have disappeared shortly afterwards but, to Jessica, it was just a little bit magic.

Jessica's Christmas Kiss is book 3 in the Christmas Wishes Series but is also perfect as a standalone read. A delightful Christmas story with a perfect balance of angst and happiness. Even though this is novella length the characters are developed enough to enable the reader to connect with them.
