...Reflection Paper: Week 1 Adam Gibbs No man-made law, no matter whether from the past or projected onto a distant, unforeseeable future, can or should ever be empowered to claim that it is greater than the natural law from which it stems. Since natural law has generally referred to that which determines what is right and wrong and whose power is made valid by nature, it follows that its precepts should be eternal, universal, and unchangeable.

Reflection Paper - Natural Laws - Term Paper
Following ancient Greek philosophy, natural law theory may include the claim that human nature has a teleological structure. That is, the human being has a natural function which is realized through the pursuit and actualization of certain natural goods. In this case, natural law also involves a commitment to a theory of goods.
