Robinson Lila is the third volume in Marilynne Robinson's Gilead trilogy. She published her first novel. Housekeeping, in 1979, published this in 2014, and so that is a four novel output in 35 years. She's no Joyce Carol Oates, putting out a book a year! I am reminded of James Page 10/32

Joyce, though, thinking of that slow writing pace.

Lila by Marilynne Robinson - Goodreads Lila is the third in a trilogy of stand-alone novels by Robinson, widely regarded as one of America's finest living writers, and winner of the Pulitzer and Orange Prizes for Page 11/32 fiction. The story is delicately told from within the sparse but wide-ranging mind of Lila, an orphan wandering the woods in Ohio in the 1930s.
