Elmer Carl Kiekhaefer was the founder of Mercury Marine. He took over the fledgeling Thor outboard company, redesigned them to be dependable, and his Mercury Outboard empire grew for there. His factory began in an old Cedarburg Wisconsin farmhouse Later moving to more automated factory in Fond du Lac. He later developed the mercruiser outdrive which is the most widely used outdrive today. His ...

Vintage Kiekhaefer Mercury Super 5 Twin Cylinder Outboard Motor. This motor seems to be seized. The prop has some movement but the flywheel seems stuck. The bake light cover under the flywheel has a crack and chip in it. The coils are not connected and are both cracked. The points and condensers need replacing as well as the plug wires. The carb looks complete less the choke knob.
