Anglo-Saxon Literature

For many people familiar with classics like "Beowulf" and "The Wanderer," the term "Old English poetry" calls to mind long, rambling epics about knights, battles, heroes and lovers. To be sure, the Old English and Anglo-Saxon poetic tradition has a specific tenor and subject matter. However, despite its somewhat antiquated tonality and style, the characteristics of Old English literature and poetry have endured and continue to impact the art form to this day.
