For the Muslim faithful, the familiar sound of the Qur'anic recitation is the predominant and most immediate means of contact with the Word of God. Heard day and night, on the street, in taxis, in shops, in mosques, and in homes, the sound of recitation is far more than the pervasive background music of daily life in the Arab world. It is the core of religious devotion, the sanctioning spirit of much cultural and social life, and a valued art form in its own right. Participation in recitation, as reciter or listener, is itself an act of worship, for the sound is basic to a Muslim's sense of religion and invokes a set of meanings transcending the particular occasion. For the most part, Westerners have approached the Qur'an much as scriptural scholars have studied the Bible, as a collection of written texts. The Art of Reciting the Qur'an aims at redirecting that focus toward a deeper understanding of the Qur'an as a fundamentally oral phenomenon. By examining Muslim attitudes toward the Qur'an, the institutions that regulate its recitation, and performer-audience expectations and interaction, Kristina Nelson, a trained Arabist and musicologist, casts new light on the significance of Qur'anic recitation within the world of Islam. Her landmark work is of importance to all scholars and students of the modern Middle East, as well as ethnomusicologists, anthropologists, linguists, folklorists, and religious scholars.

The author have successfully produced a book that will enable anyone seeking to learn and recite verses from Quran - ultimately enable one to perform daily salat (prayer) in no time. This is most suitable for parents teaching young children, teachers in schools or any non-Arabic readers! Also included are snippets of Quranic translation from other Juz', line by line meaning and its transliteration, Arabic letters table and phonetic guide all compacted into one well written guidebook. Worth noting that the scope in this book is limited to only first surah (Al-Fatiha) and last few surahs from Juz' 30; as the author firmly believes mastering these chapters will be crucial as a starting point for beginners before exploring other surahs in the holy Quran.
