Poems by José Rizal "To the Child Jesus," written by Rizal at age 14, notes the writer's early interest in Christianity and social inequity. His poems often reflected the dual beauty and cruelty of his country, leading to Rizal's final poem written just before his execution, "Mi último adiós" ("My Last Farewell"). The poem was named posthumously by fellow activist Mariano Ponce after the ...

Ministry in Poem came about years ago as the Holy Spirit spoke to me in poem. The Lord has ministered to me on many subjects in rhyme. Each volume may include poems of encouragement, teaching of God's Word, God's wisdom and principles, or poems of spiritual warfare, and a variety of other which are all Bible based. I have learned many lessons over the 30 plus years with Jesus.
