Perfume: The Story of a Murderer is a 1985 literary historical fantasy novel by German writer Patrick Süskind. The novel explores the sense of smell and its relationship with the emotional meanings that scents may have. The story follows Jean-Baptiste Grenouille, an unloved orphan in 18th-century France who is born with an exceptional sense of smell, capable of distinguishing a vast range of scents in the world around him. Grenouille becomes a perfumer but later becomes involved in murder ...

While The Perfume gets off to a fast start, it quickly becomes clear that this is a novel about Dove's internal struggle against Wing. For most of the novel, Dove is merely a passenger and therefore is only able to describe what Wing is doing to the reader, much like the protagonist in The Accident.
