This is the first time that I have done this race and I would most definitely do it again! Getting my place was easy and all the pre-race info was out in plenty of time and contained all of the info needed. The day itself was amazing - I couldn't fault a thing. Parking was easy, race reg and bag drop a doddle and everyone seemed to know exactly what they were doing. The atmosphere was buzzing ...

RACE | meaning in the Cambridge English Dictionary

A race is a grouping of humans based on shared physical or social qualities into categories generally viewed as distinct by society. The term was first used to refer to speakers of a common language and then to denote national affiliations. By the 17th century the term began to refer to physical (phenotypical) traits. Modern science regards race as a social construct, an identity which is ...

The Space Race was a competition between the US and the Soviet Union to be the first country to go into space. Throughout the 1960s, the two countries were involved in the "Cold War", a conflict where they didn't go into battle but fought each other indirectly through spying, backing opposite sides in other countries' wars, and inventing better technologies.

The space race was part of the Cold War (1947–89). The development of long-range ballistic missiles by the main protagonists—the Soviet Union and the United States of America—enabled the space race. However, it was actually a global scientific research programme that both sides used to signal their intention of launching into space.
