Ajahn Chah (1919–1992) was admired for the way he demystified the Buddhist teachings, presenting them in a remarkably simple and down-to-earth style for people of any background. He was a major influence and spiritual mentor for a generation of American Buddhist teachers, including Jon Kabat-Zinn, Sharon Salzberg, and Jack Kornfield. Previous books by Ajahn Chah have consisted of collections of short teachings on a wide variety of subjects. This new book focuses on the theme of impermanence, offering powerful remedies for overcoming our deep-seated fear of change, including guidance on letting go of attachments, living in the present, and taking up the practice of meditation. Everything Arises, Everything Falls Away also contains stories and anecdotes about this beloved master's life and his interactions with students, from his youth as a struggling monk to his last years when American students were coming to study with him in significant numbers. These stories help to convey Ajahn Chah's unique spirit and teaching style, allowing readers to know him both through his words and the way in which he lived his life.

Una de las cosas que me impuls  a escribir este libro fue el por qu  no obtenemos lo que m s anhelamos durante el transcurso de nuestro viaje al que llamamos vida, y me he dado cuenta de que lo que obtenemos y en lo que nos hemos convertido es el resultado de toda la informaci n y sabidur a que hemos permitido entrar en nuestra persona, y uni ndose a ello tambi n el medio ambiente en el cual nos hemos desenvuelto, del cual a veces no queremos salir, lo que nos absorbe envolvi ndonos en un c rculo vicioso del cual es dif cil salir. EL DESPERDICIO es solo un grupo de reflexiones sobre c mo hemos obtenido informaci n equivocada que nos ha ido causando da os m nimos a corto plazo, pero devastadores resultados con el transcurso del tiempo. EL DESPERDICIO te ayudar  a visualizar cu les son tus mayores debilidades, no para que te critiques y te hagas m s da o a ti mismo, sino para que te detengas y puedas cambiar el curso de tu vida si as  lo deseas.
