Bright exists in a world that looks very much like the one we live in, only there are a number of fantasy elements injected, namely a number of races like Elves, Orcs, and Centaurs. While magic is very much a part of the lore, it is not in active use, and in some cases appears to even be hotly debated as a myth or conspiracy theory.

'Fashion Tones' is the nickname that we've used to dub bright unnatural shades, or soft, fabricated, pastel colors. Since these fashion tones; blue, pink, purple, green or any color you can invent with the color wheel, aren't natural tones found living in the hair, they also do not remain in the hair. Visit a salon to try out a super chic rose gold tone that you saw in a fashion magazine, and you will likely see no evidence of that color remaining in your hair two weeks later, at a ...
